

I believe that...

Prayer is a holy thing.

God is present with us when we pray together (Matthew 18:19)

Prayers shared between two people are sacred.

They should not be shared without permission (James 5:16)

Prayer doesn't come naturally.

We have to learn how to pray, and we have to practice praying to get better. (Romans 12:2)

Prayer can change us.

When we believe that our prayers are heard by God, it changes us, and others. (1 John 5:14)

Prayer builds our relationships.

When we pray, we grow closer to God (Psalm 145:18), and to others (Ephesians 6:18); our trust increases, and our faith grows.

Prayer is effective for all parts of our life.

We should bring both our joys and our burdens before God, because He hears us. (Philippians 4:6)

Commitment to Confidentiality:

I, _____,
commit to keeping any and all information and prayers shared by my 5:16 Project partner confidential.
I understand that there is a special trust shared, and I will not violate that trust. I will ask before sharing any information,
and in the event that details are shared that threaten the safety of my prayer
partner or others, I will inform my partner that such information will need to be shared with the Pastor or another responsible individual that can provide care and protection. I would do this only to protect my 5:16 Project partner.
